6516204988.txt

I respectfully request that the FCC reject the NAB's petetion 04-160. Commercial radio has become boring, repetative, with excessive talk and too many commercials. I choose to listen and pay for XM satellite radio service to get what I want from a radio system. Local content such as traffic and weather is very important and should not be subject to a greedy group of broadcasters attempt to limit competition. Competition is good for consumers and good for America!